Narberth Defeats Berwyn Fourth Time

Gilfillan Hits .800 as Davismen Star at Bat and in Field.

HAUL AT HAGERTY, 7-1

By John Uberti.

Headed by the sensational "Three Musketeers" of the Narberth Ball Club, "Gene" Davis' pennant-chasers brushed aside all the menacing obstacles that have put them into their miserable slump for the past week, and by virtue of perpetual sustenance both at the pentagon and afield, managed to ensnare their fourth consecutive conquest of the season by clouting Hagerty, a new prospect in the rival lineup, for 18 clean nicks, emerging victorious by Narberth's usual top-heavy count of 7-1.

As in many combats this year every man of the local cast made good with the bludgeon by notching Senor Hagerty for at least two safeties, with the exception of "Mickey" Burns, upon whose shoulders rest the burden and responsibility to move up Heckle, lead-off man, by means of the sacrificial system. Burns only received one bingle.

Out of six trips to the disc, Gilfillan, Narberth's hard-hitting star shortstop, opened on the pick of the Berwyn pitching corps by snatching a free pass in the first inning, by hitting for a single in the third, by gaining possession of the keystone corner by virtue of an erroneous play in the subsequent session and by putting the finishing touches to his brilliant record with a one-base shot in the sixth, seventh and ninth frames.

"Bob" Harris, home-run flash, another member of the "Big Three," featured on the diamond by his much-renowned sharp-shooting drives to first, which in this case accounted for the mowing down of six dangerous Berwyn runners.

Walter Masters, the third collegian of the cast, took sole distinction on the pinnacle when he brushed aside three of the most menacing Berwyn sticksmiths and allowed the Western clan merely eight hits.

The Doyle's Nursery lads, who are gradually sinking into obscurity, whose one-time ruthless sons of the diamond were fit to meet the best baseball nines of the Eastern coast, have fallen into incredulous abasement. Again the ever-rising, threatening followers of Manager Davis crushed the slowly-fading confidence of Mr. Doyle's advertising club by pinning them to defeat with only one run to avert a scoreless half. Narberth warmed up for two innings and started to play baseball in the third by taking three runs.

Heckle singled to centrefield, went to second on Burns' sacrifice hit and crossed the plate on Hagerty's wild toss, which was meant to run him down off the keystone. Gilfillan singled to the infield, but Fleck's one-base crack soared out to centre. Martin filled the bases with a short single, and when Babb dispatched a one-bagger to deep centre, Gilly and Fleck ran over the plate.

The Davismen kept the scorebook busy by raising the mark to five in the next session. Masters and Heckle consigned singles to the outfield and Burns got on when the centrefielder juggled his fly. Harris surrendered on strikes, and when Gilfillan went to second on the shortstop's blunder, Masters and Heckle scored on the error.

The fifth proved to be the lucky inning for Berwyn when Doyle singled to centre, went to second on Harris' overthrow and counted off Shank's sacrifice fly to centre.

Win Best of Three

Avon A. A. won, 12-5, from the Ardmore Black Sox last Thursday to capture its series in two out of three games. Finnan's batting and Richardson's fielding helped Avon win, while Tingle was the star for the Ardmore nine, having three hits out of four trips to the plate, and fielding brilliantly.

Avon has won eight out of thirteen games it has played this season.

Hall and Armstead were Ardmore's battery, and Avon's was Donahue and Zillger. The score by innings went thus: three runs for Black Sox in the third and two in the ninth. Avon's runs were: one in the first, three each in the third and fifth, two in the sixth, one in the seventh and two in the eighth.

More Summer News Heard on the Veranda Than by Time-Honored Fireside, Reporter Finds

How would it do to change the name of this column to "On the Veranda" for the rest of the summer? Firesides are far from contemplation these days, except perhaps to those who are vacationing in Canada or New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. White, Miss Muriel White and Mr. White's mother, of Essex Avenue, are spending their vacation in Nova Scotia.

Miss Rena Kurth and Miss A. R. Brownell, of 115 Dudley Avenue, are spending the month of August in Cape Cod.

Mrs. C. E. Anderson and her daughter, Sonia, of Dudley Avenue, have returned from a stay in Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hongler, 329 Merion Avenue, had as guests for dinner Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Muller and family, of Wayne.

Mrs. Herbert Miles is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph D. Maguire, Grayling Avenue, for several days. On Sunday they motored to Stone Harbor to bring home Miss Alice Maguire. Miss Maguire left yesterday for Cape May, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Nulty, of Meeting House Lane, at their summer cottage until after Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Venemann and family, formerly of 212 Hampden Avenue, are occupying their new home at 64 Central Avenue, Lafayette, Ind.

Miss Lois Smith returned to her home on South Narberth Avenue this week following a month's visit in Pittsburgh and Ocean City.

Miss Patience Wohlert has returned to her home in Narbrook Park looking very tanned, following several weeks' visit in Stone Harbor and Ocean City.

Mrs. A. L. Cooke and her young daughter, Patsy, of Lantwyn Lane, returned Tuesday from Stone Harbor.

B. Earl Achenbach and family, of 507 Merwyn Road, motored to Washington, D. C., on Saturday to meet their daughter, Ethel, who had been visiting in Front Royal, Va., for two weeks, renewing acquaintances with school mates. The Achenbachs lived at Front Royal before coming to Merion seven years ago.

Mrs. George Burgess and her young son, Edward, 242 Hampden Avenue, left Wednesday for several days' stay in Atlantic City. Miss Kathryn Burgess left early Wednesday morning by motor for a trip to Connecticut. She

Devon Show Nets Hospital $30,000

Check Turned Over to Bryn Mawr Institution by Mrs. N. M. Fitler.

A check for nearly $30,000, representing the proceeds of the recent Devon Horse Show and Country Fair, has been turned over to the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

Mrs. N. Myers Fitler, executive chairman of the country fair section of the show, who made out the check and delivered it to officials of the institution, said that this latest contribution brings the amount raised for the Bryn Mawr Hospital by the horse show to well over $250,000.

This money, Mr. Fitler added, has all been raised within the last ten years. The contributions to charitable-social organizations by the horse show in that period, she said, have been unequalled by any other similar association in the country.

An additional announcement was that contracts have been awarded by the executive committee of the show for the building of 250 extra box stalls for the accommodation of equine blue-bloods which are entered annually in the event. Necessity for additional stalls—there are now 450 at the grounds—was made manifest at the last event when stable accommodations had to be found outside the fair enclosure for more than fifty horses.

The new buildings, in design, will follow those already in existence, with blue trimmings on a white background. Members of the executive committee include R. R. M. Carpenter, Isaac H. Clothier, Jr., James A. Emmons, C. C. Harrison, Jr., and William H. Wanamaker.

Will Collect Next Week

Ash and trash in this borough will be collected on regular days next week, commencing Monday, August 5, according to an announcement made this week by Superintendent of Public Works George B. Suplee.

Narberth Knocks Autocar Giants Down to Size, 6-5

Autocar Giants made their final appearance on the Narberth diamond Wednesday evening, when they were defeated in a close and exciting contest, 6-5. Lyons and Graham, hurling for the borough nine, held the visitors to three runs (including a homer) in the fifth inning, and two more in the following frame. Narberth tallied one run in the first siesta, two in the third and came out from under to make one in the seventh and two in the eighth.

Babb's homer in the seventh put Narberth in reach of its goal, making the score 5-4, favor the visitors. In the next and final frame Babb singled after two outs had been recorded; Thomas made first when Autocar's shortstop fumbled; and Young shipped both buddies in with a timely triple, launched after two strikes had been called against him.

May Be Ice Mine Now, But Looked More Like A Ham, Ten Years Ago

"Near Coudersport, Pa., 1700 feet above sea level, are found numerous vacation haunts and among the interesting places to visit is the famous Ice Mine," declared A. L. Hall, manager of the West Chester branch of the Keystone Automobile Club, in a motor tour talk which recently appeared in this paper. "The mine," he said, "is a vertical shaft, forty feet deep, in which beautiful and fantastic ice formations appear during the hot weather and, strangely enough, vanish with the approach of winter."

A reader of this paper wrote this week as follows:

"My dear Editor:

"It may interest your readers to know that one of your subscribers visited the ice cave near Coudersport, Pa., about ten years ago. Four of us climbed down a rickety ladder into a hole about twice as deep and twice as great in diameter as that of an ordinary country cistern, and had pointed out to us on the dirt wall of the hole a yellow chunk of what the guide said was ice.

"To me it looked like a ham. Concluding that the four of us were hams, and with the female portion of our family reminding us that two are born every minute, we ascended the ladder, without compensating the guide.

"What is the matter with the Keystone Automobile Club?"

Either the writer is justified in wondering if some club official had a brainstorm, or else great changes have been wrought in ten years since his visit. Has any one here visited the "ice mine" recently?

Police Make 24 Arrests in Raid on "Carbarn"

Twenty-four arrests were made when Lower Merion Township police raided a bungalow on the west side of the river at Miquon at 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

Acting on numerous complaints received from residents in the vicinity, the cops swooped down on the cottage and found the inmates acting in a disorderly manner.

They were brought back to the police station in Ardmore and arraigned before Magistrate Meredith, who imposed fines and costs upon the merry-makers.

The proprietor of the place, which was known as the "Carbarn," was held in $1000 bail on the charge of violating the prohibition laws. He gave his name as W. Alcott Barnes, of Gladwyne. The others were charged with frequenting a disorderly house.

All of the defendants gave Philadelphia addresses. The raiding party was led by Lieutenant Mullins and Sergeant Welsh, of the Lower Merion police.

R. Harland Horton to Make City Survey

One of America's best-known business engineers has been chosen to be the executive director of Philadelphia Business Progress Committee's movement to bring greater progress and prosperity to the city during the next three years. He is R. Harland Horton, 430 Owen Road, Wynnewood.

Mr. Horton will make a complete survey of Philadelphia's industrial advantages, will gather and organize all facts concerning the cultural, institutional, geographical and social life of the city, and tell of its desirability as a place in which to live, to work and to play. The progress committee plans to spend more than $1,350,000 in advertising Philadelphia's advantages.

Picture Free, But Oh! What a Frame

Photograph Is "Borrowed" by Salesman, But Narberth Woman Recovers It.

POLICE AID REQUESTED

Complaints about a new type of suburban salesmanship emanated from Narberth this week, and were reported to Superintendent C. P. Smith, of the Lower Merion police, as a warning for other Main Line residents. Mr. J. W. Darville, 201 Merion Avenue, made the report as follows:

"A man purporting to represent the Fine Arts Association, Chicago, Illinois, a portrait concern, called at my residence last Monday and talked to the maid along the following lines:

"He first requested her photograph, stating that he wanted the photograph for the Philadelphia School of Design for Women, as this school could not afford to pay for live models and they used these photographs to sketch from.* He stated that the photograph would be returned shortly.

"He handed the maid what she presumed was a receipt for the photograph, and which form indicates they will finish a portrait ten to sixteen inches absolutely free, but it necessitates the customer buying the frame from the Fine Arts Association, which I understand costs $18 to $25. In a great many cases portraits of value are given to such people and they will not return the portrait unless payment is made for the frame.

"In this particular instance, Mrs. Darville succeeded in getting the photograph back, because she caught up with the representative and waited at his automobile, which was a Nash sedan, Pennsylvania license 338-087. One of the questions she asked him was: 'Do you have a license to solicit in the town of Narberth?' and it was ascertained he did not."

* Interviewed Tuesday, the Assistant Dean of the Philadelphia School of Design for Women denied indignantly any connection of her school with the Chicago Fine Arts Association or its representatives, and declared that the matter has been placed in the hands of the school's attorneys for prosecution.

Hosts to Lord Ilchester

Lord Ilchester (Giles Stephen Holland Fox-Strangways), head of the historic House of Fox and a well-known figure in the British literary world, was the guest over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Donovan at "Maydon," Merion. The sixth of his line, Lord Ilchester, traces his family history back to the seventeenth century, when Sir Stephen Fox became the friend of Charles II in his exile.

Lord Ilchester is the owner of Holland House, in Kensington, London, which has a world-wide reputation as the centre of political, literary and artistic life in the English capital.

Sues Borough

Because of injuries alleged to have been received when an automobile in which she was a passenger ran into an unguarded hole in the highway, Cora R. Bowman, and her husband, Linn Bowman, through Attorney Edred J. Pennell, have brought an action in Prothonotary Haldeman's office to recover $25,000 damages from the borough of Narberth. The accident happened November 10, 1927. Mrs. Bowman alleges she was seriously injured, bones in her back being fractured and her vision badly damaged.

Tells of Old Main Line

Alexander Cappie Shand, Jr., contractor and real estate developer, of Merion, told the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at its meeting Tuesday of the oprgress of the old Main Line from the days of Academyville, Athensville, Humphreystown, Libertyville and Merionville.

Mr. Shand is the son of A. C. Shand, Sr., who before his retirement last August was assistant to vice president and former chief engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Award School Contracts

At a special meeting of the Narberth School Board, held Tuesday night, estimates were considered and contracts awarded for painting woodwork in classrooms of the schools and making repairs to the roof, spouting, etc. The auditors' report for the year ending July 1, 1929, was submitted and will be published in "Our Town" next week.

Great Catcher and All Girls' Nine Coming Here

Tomorrow (Saturday) will see Brookline playing Narberth at the Borough Community Playground in another Main Line League game.

Monday's game, scheduled with Santop Bronchos, and postponed because of rain, will be played here next Monday, August 5, Manager Gene Davis, of the Narberth Baseball Club, announced this week. Santop, manager of the postponed visitors, is a former catcher of the Hilldale all-star club, and was considered by John McGraw to be one of the greatest catchers of his time. Coming Monday's announced Preston game will not be played.

Other twilight games scheduled include one with the M. L. Tigers, Wednesday, August 7, and with Hilldale, August 12. Of interest to ball fans of both sexes here is the announcement that the Bloomer Girls, of New York, will play here soon, for the first time in Narberth. The team will be the first all-girls' nine to play professional baseball here.

The committee on arrangements is headed by Marios Chios and R. R. Calkins.

Main Line Tailors Stage Annual Parade and Picnic

Thirty-four cars appeared in the parade staged Wednesday of last week by the Main Line Tailors and Cleaners' Asosciation on their way to their annual picnic, which was held at Lenape Park, near West Chester. The parade commenced at 9:30 A. M. and was escorted by two mounted members of the State Highway Police from City Line, Bala, to Paoli, by way of Bala Avenue, Montgomery Avenue and Lancaster Pike. Motion pictures were taken of the tailors' decorated cars and were shown at Main Line theatres this week.

The association, whose members comprise almost all the tailors and cleaners on the Main Line, staged a bathing beauty contest and several games. The usual refreshments were provided and the procession returned at 8:30 P. M.

Harry A. Mongin, Cynwyd, was in charge of the parade; Charles Hewit, Narberth, was in charge of sports; and Joseph Adelizzi, Narberth, was chairman of the program committee.

The association was formed last year in an effort to secure better co-operation of its members with each other and better service for the public, its patrons.

Winners of the sports events were:

100-yard dash (fat men)—F. Masciangelo.

100-yard dash (skinny men)—W. Rogers.

50-yard dash (boys)—Yolando Acianapara.

Five Win Letters at Camp Delmont

Outing Enjoyed by 17 From Narberth. Scoutmaster Tips Canoe.

MARKLE IN POLITICS?

Unusually good times were enjoyed by Narberth Boy Scouts who attended Camp Delmont recently. The seventeen boys from here who attended, in care of George O. Schroeder, their Scoutmaster, were well pleased with the trip and are enthusiastic in their praise of the entire staff at Unami Creek and the special opportunities given this year for advancement in Scoutcraft.

In former years only a few of the Narberth Scouts stayed more than a week, but this year fourteen of the seventeen remained the second week.

Those attending camp were Vaughan Templeman, Drew Daubert, John Peden, Thomas Loughlan, Joseph Murphy, Thomas Dunlap, Lewis Pugh. Jack Van Auken, Robert Hutchinson, Andy Burns, Robert and Charles Mason, Thomas Hawthorne, George Schroeder, Jr., Richard Wentz, Vincent Park, Bob Hankey and Howard Wilson,. the Assistant Scoutmaster.

While all Scouts passed several tests, the following deserve special mention, having passed all required tests and special service, thereby winning their "C. D.'" letters: Thomas Hawthorne, Joseph Murphy, Vincent Park, Robert Hutchinson and George Schroeder, Jr.

Lewis Pugh won his First Aid emblem, while Dick Wentz won his First Aid and Junior Life Saving emblems.

Scoutmaster George Schroeder, weighing a large portion of a ton, failed in the canoeing test. He simply couldn't keep the stern of that canoe above the water. Well, George likes to swim in deep water anyway.

Did you see the latest addition to the troop? It's a Buick, just Scout age—12 years—and although only a Scout for a month, it has already passed its first-class test and earned its emblem, having carried the Scouts on three hard trips.

This new Scout was donated by George Markle, and the boys are talking of showing their appreciation by running him on the regular Republican ticket next fall for Santa Claus.

Avonwood Ct. Sold For Development

Mather Heirs Dispose of $450-000 Property in Exclusive Haverford Section.

Hirst & MacFarland have sold for the Charles E. Mather Estate the property known as "Avonwood Court," containing 19.786 acres, and has a frontage of 925 feet on Rose Lane and 1350 feet on Avon Road, Haverford. The property was reported sold for $450,000.

The purchasers are Duffield Ashmead, Jr., and J. Morgan Lister, who plan to construct a winding road, known as Mather Lane, through the property and will begin immediately on the work of drawing plans for the first two houses to be built, which will be in keeping with the surrounding neighborhood, safely restricted and established as a fine home section. The tract is adjacent to estates owned by Walter Lippincott, William Righter Fisher, Sidney Thayer, William N. Anderson, Samuel B. Brown and Robert W. Lesley.

Mr. Ashmead is a member of the well-known firm of De Armond, Ashmead & Bickley, who have designed and constructed residences in the Philadelphia suburbs for many years; while Mr. Lister has had broad experience in the planning and development of real estate. The purchasers are intent on improving this ground with houses that will commend themselves to the most critical purchaser, both from the standpoint of architectural attractiveness and of real value.

This sale marks the passing from its original ownership one of the suburbs' outstanding estates, and makes it possible for several families to enjoy the benefits of the old planting and abundant shrubbery, together with its convenience to the Pennsylvania Railroad Station.

Charles E. Mather was a pioneer in this section, and at the time Avonwood Court was built, in 1882, it was considered venturesome to make one's home so far out of Philadelphia on the then open farm country. This prominent Main Liner was one of the founders of the Radnor Hunt and was their master of hounds for many years before taking his pack to the Brandywine Hunt. He was also the representative of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association in the territory around Philadelphia.

UNCLE CY'S COLUMN

Township Treasurer.

Why don't you, or why don't we Lower Merion folk end this petty political squabble by putting up Charley Powell for Township Treasurer? It would be comforting to have a Democrat watching the purse strings, and it is doubtful whether a more conscientious candidate could be found.

* * *

Away With Dissenters.

The controversy instigated by my gentle series of mild articles on the subject of Prohibition has brought in more correspondence than anything I have ever written, but the readers may become bored, and, to avoid this, the editor has agreed to stop publishing correspondence on the subject after August 16. Won't someone start another good community argument? Faber, Sympatica, M. A. D., Pax, and all the other worthies, will you assist an old man in distress?

* * *

The Visit Deferred.

After all of my cleaning and straightening to avoid any casualties, Aunt Cy wired that she would have to postpone her inspection trip home for another week. You can write your own comment about this. It would not be diplomatic for me to do it.

* * *

Hoover Horseshoes.

It is with great pleasure that I note that His Excellency, the President of the United States, engages in pitching horseshoes. This ancient American game is one that deserves perpetuation. Thank the Lord that marksmanship at the sawdust box in the country store has become almost obsolete.

* * *

Packet Racing.

Did it give you a thrill to read on the front pages of the dailies about the race on the Ohio between two sidewheelers? All of the reporter's imagination and enthusiasm was given space that day, and it would have been a great thing to witness the event.

Following that the speed of two modern motorboats beating the 1200 miles record of the Robert E. Lee on the Mississippi does not seem nearly so thrilling, though the men who piloted the crafts will never forget it.

A Party.

A newspaperman who has been about the country quite a bit told me that a colyumist on a large Middle-Western daily gave a party for everyone who had contributed to the column during a year. Having made the arrangements, he charged everyone two dollars a ticket to attend. Do any of the contributors want me to have a party arranged for them this fall?

Stupidity.

Next week, or some week soon, I want to write a column, just as a safety valve, to express my utter and deep contempt for the average human being and my idea of his boundless stupidity.

Perhaps it is a failing of mine to have these attacks of misanthropy, but how can any sane person move through life and among some of the cattle that call themselves men and women without ever voicing a complaint?

I am told that one Dean Swift, a cleric, found the human race so tiresome that he wrote some immortal books on the subject, which few people understand and which children find very entertaining to read.

As soon as Joseph Hergesheimer agrees to help me I'll write a book that will have a sale like "Main Street" and will be used as much as the "comic" supplement of a Sunday paper.

Too Much Sun Not Good, Says Dr. Appel

"A number of really severe cases of sunburn have been brought to the Department's attention during the past several weeks. The victims have started out for their stay at shore, mountain or lake resorts filled with enthusiasm and ended it in an invalid's bed at home. 'Too much sun and too little sense' was the general verdict," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health, today.

"There has been so much talk about the healing power of the sun's rays that a popular misconception seems to exist on this subject. Too many people foolishly imagine that a body unexposed to the sun's rays for the better part of the year can suddenly and lengthily be thus subjected and physical profit be derived therefrom. The facts, however, are directly opposite.

"It is one thing to accustom one's tender skin to the sun's rays in fifteen-minute graduated doses over a period of days, and quite another one to flop down on a sandy beach the first day of the vacation and bake one's self into blisters, misery and illness. Yet that is the offense against nature which is being constantly committed by many thousands on their annual vacation sojourn.

"The sensible person will realize that the two weeks' outing should be utilized wisely for health and recreation rather than as an excuse to indulge in excesses, including over-exposure to the sun."

Scouts Enjoy Special Swimming Privileges

The Narberth Boy Scouts are loud in their praise of the Brynwood Manor swimming pool this summer.

Through the courtesy of Bud Rudolph (who has leased the pool this year) the Scouts are privileged to the free use of the pool each Saturday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock and Bud personally is giving instructions to the Scouts in swimming and life saving.

For the benefit of any one not acquainted with Bud we wish to state that he is a former Narberth Scout and was Assistant Scoutmaster with the Ardmore Troop. He also is a Red Cross Life Guard Inspector and made a fine record as a life guard at the shore. Bud is now Scout Merit Badge Examiner in swimming and life saving and assures any Scout that he will do all in his power to assist them in procuring these prized emblems.

Last Saturday twelve Scouts used the pool and received instructions, and Bud says it looks promising for a dozen more life savers for the Narberth Scouts.

Is it any wonder the Scouts are strong for Bud and loud in their appreciation?

Playground News

The afternoon sprinkle has been very welcome during the extremely warm weather of the past week.

In the playground baseball league, Brennan's team won the first half with seven wins and no losses. The second half begins today (Friday) with Heckle's team playing Newburg and Smith playing Brennan.

Robert Young claims the title of lawn cricket champion of Narberth after defeating Alice Callaghan in the finals of the tournament held on Tuesday, which had an entry list of thirty-two. Any one who wishes to secure the championship must play Robert in an official game on the playground—and beat him.

Louis Kime won the Japanese beetle contest by presenting four quarts of the insects. He was given a flashlight as a prize for his good work.

Next Tuesday will be staged the long-awaited golf tournament, to be conducted on each playground, beginning at 11 A. M. at the school playground and 2 P. M. at the community playground. The winners of each will play in the finals, whose winner will be given a new golf club.

NASH "400"
LEADS THE WORLD IN MOTOR CAR VALUE

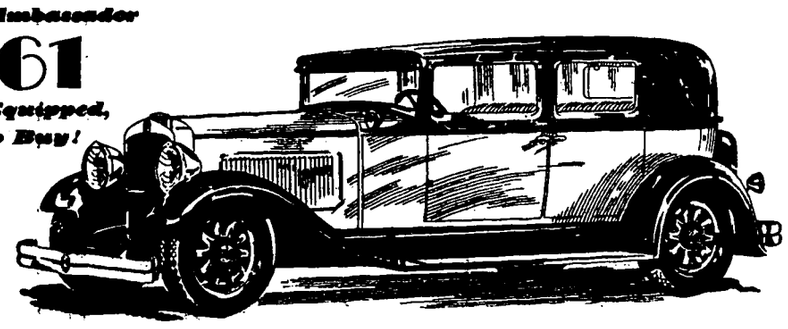
$2,061
Delivered, Fully Equipped, Nothing More to Buy!



THE AMBASSADOR BY NASH
—TWIN-IGNITION-MOTORED

THOUSANDS of people who drive the Twin-Ignition-motored Nash "400" Ambassador have discovered that the most luxurious type of motoring is not necessarily prohibitive in price.

Obvious to every eye is the style and thoroughbred character of this charming motor car. There is beauty in the purity and grace of every line and curve. There is luxury in every item of interior dress and decoration, from inlaid walnut panellings to the deep, overstuffed cushions, upholstered in fabrics restricted to fine car manufacture.

And equally obvious, to those who know good motor cars, is the high quality of "400" engineering and Ambassador performance. Here, in this moderately priced car, is the Twin-Ignition motor, the year's most notable achievement in power. Another very attractive "400" feature is the "world's easiest steering."

And the Ambassador is one of the easiest riding cars ever built. The wheelbase is 130 inches. The springs are built of special process alloy steel, individually designed for Ambassador size and weight, and outboard mounted Houdaille double action, hydraulic shock absorbers are regular equipment.

Other features of convenience and quality which Nash volume makes it possible for you to have at Ambassador price, are Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication and Chromium-nickeled bumpers front and rear—at no extra charge.

Volume and its manufacturing economies plus Nash engineering skill make possible this value. More than 168,000 Nash "400s" were built and sold in the 12 months (just ended) since the "400" introduction.

Delivered, Fully Equipped Price Range of 23 Nash "400" models includes Touring, Roadster, Coupe, Cabriolet, Victoria and Sedan Models $2,507
